Kudos to Randy Cutter for helping Dan Schroth on the front wall of the new Historical Society building and providing some capstone, to Gail and Jim Allard for supplying some capstone as well and to Jim Parker for providing the backhoe to set the stones.

The stone came from the old Merrimack Farmers Exchange building after it was torn down on Catamount Road. Friends of Josiah Carpenter Library presidential Primary Election raffle was won by Denise Parker! Congratulations Denise and thank you to everyone who supported the library.

Happy Birthday wishes to Patty Houle on February 18 and to my nephew, Lucas Fries on Thursday, February 20. I hope you both have a great day!

Clothes Closet News

Pittsfield Clothes Closet Manager, Phyliss Conway presents a $200 check to Josiah Carpenter Library Director Leslie Vogt, the money will be used to enhance Library Programming.

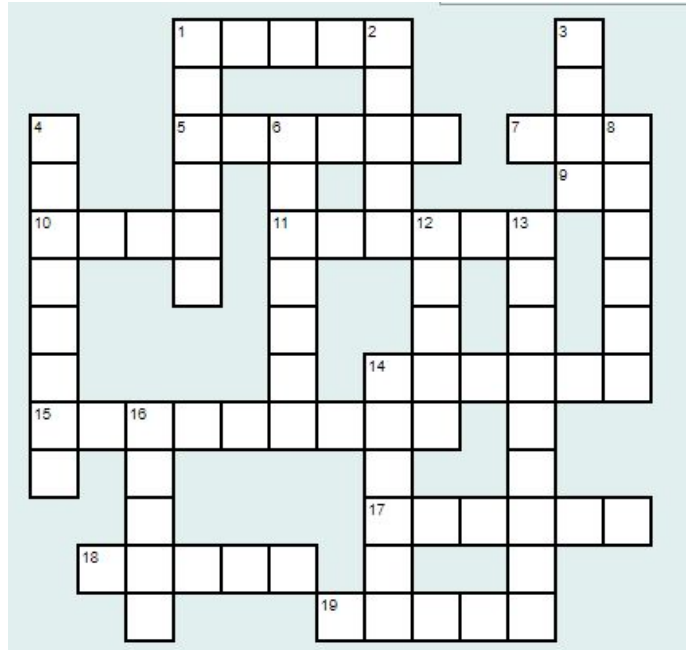

If you've lived in town a while or have taken time to explore the streets of Pittsfield, chances are you know Phyliss Conway. Phyliss was born in Pittsfield and her roots as a volunteer run deep. So deep that last year she was chosen as Pittsfield's Citizen of the Year.

Phyliss, along nine dedicated volunteers, manages and runs the Pittsfield Clothes Closet; an organization started by her mother over 30 years ago!

A few years back, after years of volunteering, Phyliss 'took over, so that then 'manager' Beverly Drolet could 'retire'. She has never looked back and from the looks of things, she and the volunteers are continuing the Clothes Closets' successful legacy of fulfilling a community need and giving back to Pittsfield.

The Clothes Closet takes in donations of clothing, accessories, books and houseware type items and then sells them at reasonable prices; sometimes you can fill an entire bag for a $1.00. All money raised, less rent and utility payments, is donated back to community organizations, including an annual scholarship to a graduating Pittsfield Middle High School. approximately $3,000. Please stop by the Clothes Closet and to support Pittsfield.
