

PITTSFIELD POST

A FREE WEEKLY PRODUCTION BY COMMUNITY VOLUNTEERS

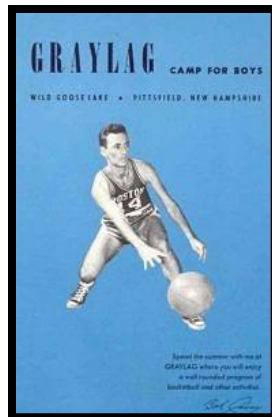

January 20, 2021

One day we must come to see that peace is not merely a distant goal that we seek, but that it is a means by which we arrive at that goal. We must pursue peaceful ends through peaceful means." - Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

The Graylag Story

Building the camp. In 1946, Jacob Geib and his sons turned 500 acres of undeveloped woodland and the waterfront of Wild Goose Pond, located mostly in Pittsfield, into a summer camp for boys. They named it after the European name for the wild goose, which, because it was gray and lagged behind other geese flying south in autumn, was called the Graylag. As the founders said in the original camp brochure, "The continental name symbolizes the free spirit of the out-of-doors."

Basketball, The Bob Cousy years. In 1952, basketball legend Bob Cousy, of the Boston Celtics, became a partner in Camp Graylag. From that time, the camp specialized in basketball and became closely identified with Cousy's athletic gifts and sportsmanship. Camp Graylag at that time had the largest outdoor floodlit courts in New England and attracted many great players and coaches as instructors in the fine points of the game. In 1971 after 23 successful years, Camp Graylag closed.

Restoration under Carl Wallman. Carl was born and raised in New York City. His parents immigrated to New York from Russia and Poland, where they were forbidden to own land; this gave Carl an early appreciation of nature. In 1995, after 25 years raising Angus cattle in Northwood, NH, Carl bought a 50-acre parcel of beautiful woodlands central to the former Camp Graylag. Gardens, trails and comfortable rustic cabins were added. Carl realized he wanted people to enjoy the natural woodlands and waters of Graylag and in Summer of 2005 Graylag Cabins opened.

Passing the torch to Graylag Nature Preserve. Carl passed away in February 2020. We will always be grateful for the determination with which Carl worked in the last months of his life, endowing Graylag with his vision and a clear mission. In November 2019, Graylag Cabins became Graylag Nature Preserve, a public 501(c)(3) non-profit.

2021 Graylag Nature Preserve Programs

UNDERSTANDING BOBCATS IN NH

Virtual via Zoom - January 30, 4pm

Have you ever wanted to learn more about those elusive big cats in our woods? Join us for a virtual program with Graylag Nature Preserve and NH Fish and Game Wildlife Stewards for an introduction to these animals and the fascinating telemetry research that gives a window into their movements throughout New Hampshire. For more information or to register, go to Graylag.org or call 603-435-5555.

Have a skill you would like to share? Contact us to host your educational workshop or program .

Happy Birthday wishes to Bob Wharem on Tuesday and to Roger Metcalf on Saturday. I hope you enjoy your special day.

A Very Special Happy Birthday wish to my fabulous husband, Mark Riel, on Tuesday! I hope you have a great day!

Last Call for Store Number 45

Pittsfield's Liquor Store will close for the last time on January 20. I will miss it, but the State Liquor Commish has decided that now we all have to go to the new monster size store in Epsom when we want to get a jug.

Shopping has never been my idea of fun, but Manager Dodie Kidder and her gang always made buying booze here in town a pleasant experience. They are friendly, helpful and accommodating; particularly this year as Covid has complicated things.

Sadly, this store's closing will be another nail in the coffin lid for Pittsfield's hopes of increasing its commercial activities. Bill Miskoe

Just for Laughs It's been said that if you lie down with dogs you get up with fleas. Does this mean that if you lie down with lambs you get up with fleece? Bill Miskoe

Select Board Meeting January 12, 2021

The majority of our meeting involved election and warrant issues. First, the deliberative session will look different due to Covid 19 requirements. Having a completely remote meeting we feel is out of the question. It would require having three meetings to accomplish what one meeting should, and frankly a logistical nightmare that we feel would amount to an ineffective "dog and pony show." We're confident that the deliberative session will be held at the high school gym - other than that, stay tuned for all other protocols so that you can participate.

We reviewed the warrant (ballot questions) and voted our recommendations on each money item. The Board of Selectmen proposes the upcoming year's budget for each department to the Budget Committee. This includes all MUNICIPAL departments such as Police, Fire, Highway and Administrative, as well as the smaller budgets such as Parks and Recreation. WE HAVE NO INPUT for the School expenditures, which is a separate budget and ballot. The Budget Committee then reviews the recommendations of both the Select Board and the School to come up with the proposals you'll see on the ballots in March.

The Town Municipal budget for 2021 should result in little or no increase in your tax bill. The Select Board is, however, extremely concerned about an increase due to several factors in the School budget. Hopefully taxpayers will take this prospect seriously without further slashing the town departments, which already operate (effectively) on a bare bones budget.

To my constituents in Pittsfield,

This week, the House met, as required by the constitution, to certify the election of the governor and the executive council. No protests over these; the peaceful protesters were opposing our meeting in our cars, in the UNH parking lot (not sure if they wanted us to be remote or in person, at the State House). Not an ideal method, as bottlenecks entering meant that we started over an hour late, and signals to speak involved honking horns and flashing lights.

We elected Sherm Packard of Londonderry as Speaker, replacing Dick Hinch, who died with Covid a week after his election. We also adopted House rules, with current deadlines and an allowance for remote or hybrid committee meetings. A number of amendments to the rules were considered, mostly voted down, including full remote sessions, formal bans on guns and alcohol in the chamber, and mandates to committee chairs on how to run their meetings. I spoke against that one, as micromanaging seldom works out as planned. We did adopt some formatting changes.

Anyone wanting more information can email me for my weekly newsletter, which has all the details. Representative Carol McGuire,

Cook's Corner

Pork Tenderloin Sliders

Looking for something a little different to jazz up your soup & sammie night? Try this one.

You can garnish this with croutons and a drizzle of sour cream or plain Greek yogurt. Be sure to put out the pepper grinder, too. A satisfying bowl of goodness, and this soup pairs well with grilled sandwiches, especially Pork Tenderloin Sliders (recipe included), or serve up your favorite salad. Happy Eating!

2 pork tenderloins (1 pkg should have 2 pieces in it, about 1.5 lbs total)

3 Tbsp olive oil + a little more for searing the meat

2 tsp coarse salt (sea salt or kosher salt)

1 tsp ground pepper

¼ cup firmly packed dark brown sugar

2 Tbsp Dijon mustard

3 Tbsp fresh thyme leaves (or 1 & ½ tsp dried thyme)

2 Tbsp fresh rosemary leaves (or 1 tsp dried rosemary leaves)

Slider buns

Heat oven to 400. Rub pork tenderloins with oil, salt & pepper. Stir sugar and next 3 ingredients together, rub all over the pork.

Heat about 1 Tbsp of oil in a large skillet and sear the pork over medium high heat for about 5 minutes, or until browned all around.

Line a 9 x 13 baking sheet with tin foil and place a wire rack on top of the baking sheet. Place tenderloins on the wire rack and bake in oven for 20 to 25 minutes or until the meat is no longer pink inside.

Slice the tenderloins and serve on slider buns with your favorite sauces, such as BBQ or Honey Mustard. You might also want to dress these sammies with cole slaw, or shredded lettuce, sliced tomatoes and thin-sliced red or yellow onion.

Sweet Potato & Carrot Soup – SLOW COOKER

4 large shallots, thinly sliced

1 lb carrots, diced / chopped

2 lbs sweet potatoes, diced / chopped

1 Tbsp olive oil

2 Tbsp butter

2 Tbsp of fresh, minced ginger (from the tube in the produce aisle) or 2 Tbsp of curry powder (either ginger or curry - your call)

1 tsp dried thyme

6 cups vegetable or chicken broth

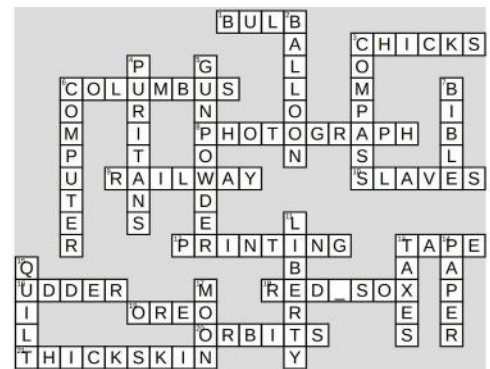

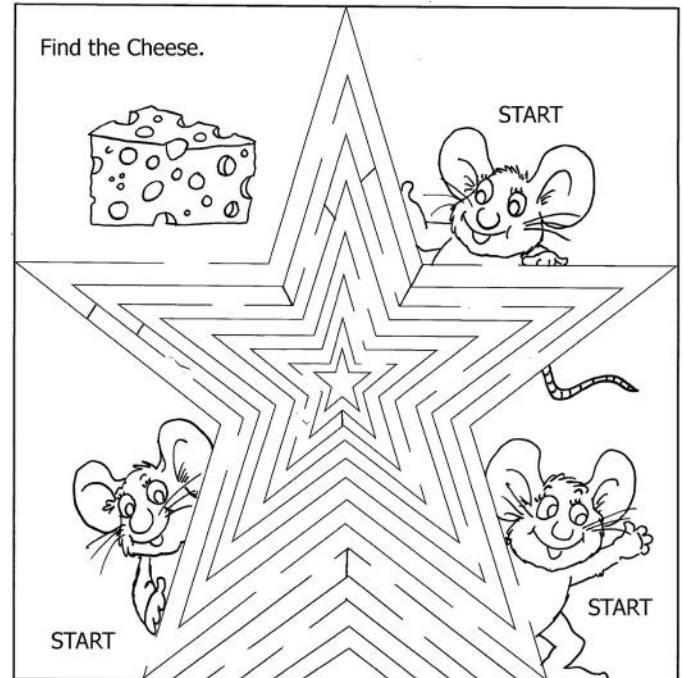

1 Tbsp apple cider vinegar

2 Tbps finely chopped, fresh parsley

In a skillet, heat the oil and butter until butter is melted. Add shallots and thyme, Cook 4 minutes, until shallots are golden brown, stirring often. Transfer to a slow cooker bowl. Add the sweet potatoes and carrots to the slow cooker, then add the broth and either the ginger or curry powder. Season with salt & pepper. Cook on low for 3 to 4 hours or until sweet potatoes are very tender.

Let the mixture cool a little then transfer to a blender and blend the soup in batches, if necessary. Don't forget to remove the plastic piece from the top of the blender and cover it with a dish towel while you're blending. Put the pureed soup into a pot, add the cider vinegar, re-season with salt & pepper if desired, and heat. MP Christakos
