Please Join Us!

The Pittsfield Historical Society is conducting its annual membership drive, and we would like you to join us! Your membership dues will help the society continue with its mission: "...to educate the public about the significance of Pittsfield’s past and its relevance and relationship to the lives of the citizens of Pittsfield today." Membership dues support the infrastructure of the Society. They pay for the office supplies, heat, water, insurance, and to keep the lights on. Dues also ensure that we have the funds to participate in programs such as NH Humanities to Go, which provides speakers on wonderful topics that sometimes make up a portion of our annual programs, which are offered free to the public.

Members will receive our quarterly newsletters which contain delightful topics of historical significance, descriptions of newly donated artifacts, announcements of future programs, and timely news. Members also receive the Annual Report, which highlights the yearly events.

To ensure membership is open to everyone, there is a seven-tiered dues structure. Just complete the membership card and return it to us. Or you can review the information and our activities on our website: www.pittsfieldhistory.com  Liz Dimmick

PHS All-Class Reunion: Sadly, it has been decided to postpone the reunion until the summer of 2022. Although we are making great gains in conquering the pandemic, it was thought that most people would be reluctant to make plans for travel and it would limit the number of people attending. We would rather wait one more year and look forward to everyone coming for a wonderful gathering. See you in 2022!

Happy Birthday wishes to Rick Chase on Thursday, enjoy your special day! Congratulations to Addison Clark on receiving the PMHS Varsity Girls Basketball Coaches Award and to Parker Clark on receiving the PMHS JV Boys Basketball MVP Award!

Spicy Nacho Bake

Warning, your family and friends will ask you to make this all the time. You can easily double this recipe, and either use a large disposable aluminum roasting pan, or use two 13x9-inch casseroles. Also, it’s easy to dial down the heat if that’s your preference, by using mild chili beans and regular Doritos or tortilla chips. Plan to serve this with your favorite Mexi fixin’s on the side, sour cream, guac, jalapenos, fresh chopped cilantro, chopped scallions. Ole amigos!

- 2 lbs ground beef
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 1 large green pepper, chopped
- 1 (28 oz) can diced tomatoes, undrained
- 1 can (16 oz) spicy (hot) chili beans, undrained
- 1 can (15 oz) black beans, drained & rinsed
- 1 can (11 oz) whole kernel corn, drained
- 1 can (8 oz) tomato sauce
- 1 envelope taco seasoning
- 1 (13 oz) package spicy nacho-flavored tortilla chips (such as Doritos)
- 2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese

Heat oven to 350.

In a Dutch oven, cook the ground beef, onions and green peppers over medium heat until beef is cooked through. Drain the mixture and return to the pot. Stir in tomatoes, beans, corn, tomato sauce and taco seasoning. Bring to a boil, reduce heat and simmer for 30 minutes (mixture will be thin, that’s okay).

Lightly spray a 13 x 9-inch baking dish. Layer 5 cups of tortilla chips in the bottom and some of the meat / bean mixture, then repeat the chips and meat layers until you’ve used all ingredients. Top the entire casserole with extra tortilla chips and the shredded cheese.

Bake casserole, uncovered, for 20 to 25 minutes.
